Though he may not be here with us physically,
we feel his presence and blessings all around us. It is the seed he sowed that has today grown into the mighty institution known as Jean Paul's High School. We are indebted in our gratitude to his great soul.

From the Principal's Desk

Dear parents/guardians,

I look forward to extending a warm welcome to your child on behalf of the faculty and staff of Jean Paul's High School. Jean Paul's is a school that is determined to help develop its students into well-rounded citizens of the world. I am extremely proud of its academic record, expansive campus and caring environment. At Jean Paul's your child will be interacting with some of the finest teaching minds of the country. Our award-winning faculty and dedicated staff consistently strive to provide the best to your child during their time at Jean Paul's.

This prospectus will give you a broad understanding of the school, its facilities, functioning and the experiences that are in store for your child. We hope that by the time your child graduates from Jean Paul's, they will be a shining beacon of pride for you and for us. Of course, all that we hope to achieve is not possible without support from you, the parents. I would like to take this opportunity to invite your partnership in helping your child realise their true potential.

Secretary's Message

Jean Paul's is an institution that prides itself on the education we impart and the character we instil in our students. We believe that hard work and discipline can achieve amazing results and when accompanied by relevant knowledge and skills, they can create wonders. It is this sense of wonder that we hope to cultivate in all our students; a genuine curiosity about the world and its workings. This enterprising spirit, we believe, is what leads not just to academic success but a successful and well-adjusted life as well. I am sure that your child will enjoy partaking of this sense of wonder at Jean Paul's High School.

Words from a Managing Committee Member

From a small room with just 15 students to a sprawling three-campus institution; the journey of Jean Paul's High School has been a long one. But looking at the long list of distinguished alumni and the thousands of smiling faces I see at the school, I know that every step of the journey has been worth the effort. Jean Paul's has become the institution that it is today only due to all of our collective efforts. The managing committee feels everyone's support is essential, whether it is from the teaching faculty or non-teaching staff. And this aspect of teamwork is a core skillset that is imparted to our students. The ability to work together is an important skill that will help them get ahead and find the success that they deserve. I hope that we can work with you in helping your child find their success.

S HIGH SCHOOL
+2 LEVEL
DHANUPARA, ARA- 802301

The school received State Government certification in 1998. In the same year, CBSE affiliation was approved for class 10 and affiliation for class 12 followed quickly in 2000. In the beginning, attendance was limited to just 15-20 children of the neighbourhood. But under the able guidance of its Principal and CBSE National Teacher's Award winner, Dr. Madhu Sinha, the school quickly acquired a reputation for excellence in education and enrolment grew astonishingly. The rapid growth necessitated the construction of a new building for seniors at Dhanupara. Today, thousands of students attend and many more are leading successful lives in India and abroad.

An Enduring Journey

In 1990, Lt. Mr. Brajendra Prasad Sinha had a vision. It was simple to envision but difficult to execute: To provide quality education to as many children as he could. To this end, he set up Jean Paul's High School in his own home at East of Ramna Road. The school was named after the French philosopher and Nobel laureate, Jean-Paul Sartre, whose work influenced a wide variety of disciplines including sociology, critical theory, and literary studies. Like its namesake, the school aims to educate students in a well-rounded manner, to become able, productive and creative citizens in a brave new world.

The Curriculum at Jean Paul's

Jean Paul's follows the curriculum as laid out by the C.B.S.E. We aim to boost students' intellectual, emotional and physical capabilities to make them future-ready individuals.
